Blockchain Security

Kiera Cawley

What is the blockchain?

- Way to store data without a centralized database

- Makes information storage more efficient and secure

- System that crypto currencies such as Bitcoin are built on

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Mxer4HQS8no

Blockchain Security

- Each node has a private and a public key

- User transactions are stored under their public keys

- Private keys are used to verify transactions and access encrypted data from the blockchain